

Winter and Summer Break Intensives

During school breaks Education Therapy offers “intensive” learning programs customized for your student’s unique needs. Many parents utilize school breaks to help their children master skills that will allow them to thrive during the school year.

Many Hawaii students transferring into college preparatory schools are severely lacking in basic skills needed to compete with peers. Using a school break to work on the “basics” gives you child the skills and confidence needed to succeed in a challenging educational environment.